MEDICAL.

The Old Reliable Family Medicine!

Has been introduced and sold

FOR THIRTY-ONE YEARS!

FROM

1840. TO 1871.

Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

Has been tested in every variety of climate,

and by almost every nation known to America. It is the almost constant companion and inestimable friend of the Pain Killer.

It travels on sea and land, and no one travels on our LAKES or RIVERS without it.

Since the PAIN KILLER was first introduced, and met with such unparalleled success, many LINNETS, RELIEFS, PAIN-KILLERS, and other REMEDIES have been offered to the public, but not one of them has ever attained the truly enviable standing of the PAIN KILLER.

Why is this so?

It is because Davis' PAIN KILLER is what it claims to be, a Reliever of Pain.

ITS VERTUES.

If you are suffering from Internal Pain,

Twenty or Thirty drops in a little water will instantly cure you. There is nothing to fear in using it. A few drops in water will prevent sickness or bowel troubles from change of water. From foreign countries the call for

PAIN KILLER is great. It is found to cure

Croup, when all other Remedies fail. When used externally, as a Liniment, nothing gives quicker ease in Burns, Cuts, Bruises, Sprains,

Stings from Insects, Scalds, Itch, Rheumatism,

the fire and the wound heals like ordinary sores. Those suffering with Rheumatism,

Gout, or Neuralgia, if not a positive cure, they find the Pain Killer gives them relief when other remedies fail. It gives instant relief from Aching Teeth. From 1840 to this day over thirty years, PERRY DAVIS' PAIN

KILLER has had no rival.

Every Housekeeper should keep it at hand, to apply to the first attack of any pain. It will also cure the most violent cases of Colic,

Do not trifle with yourself by testing unreliable Remedies. Be sure you call for, and get the genuine Davis' Pain Killer, as many worthless imitations are attempted to be sold on the great reputation of this valuable medicine.

Directions accompany each bottle.

“Your niece, sir? What is her name?”

“Verley.”

“Oh, yes, sir? She has been here these two hours, bless her heart! She’s asleep now.”

“Asleep?” gasped Mr. Verley.

“But the stewardess told me she was bustling into the inner department and bringing out what appeared to be a compact bundle, with a pink lace on one end of it, and a mass of long trailing embroidery on the other.”

Joseph Verley recoiled as far as the angle of the door would let him.

“Why—it’s a baby!”

“To be sure it is,” said the woman,

“and as fine a little girl as I ever saw.”

“What a sweet little creature!”

“But isn’t there a nurse or some such person here to take charge of it?”

The Frankfort Commonwealth persists in its charge that the Democracy of Kentucky is organized into "night riders," "Kludges," &c. The editor doubtless believes that "a lie well stuck to is as good as a truth."

LARGE TURNIP.—Mrs. Albert Hoffman sent to our office on Saturday a turnip weighing 60 pounds, and measuring 2 feet in circumference. It is a huge one, but Mrs. H. says she will send us a big one in the wagon next week.

Sir Roderick Impey Murchison, K. C. B., who died in England the other day, was celebrated as the gentleman who announced regularly every six weeks, for the last ten years, that Dr. Livingstone was slowly making his way toward Ujiji.

The private soldier, Bosfin, belonging to Company "E," 4th U. S. Infantry, stationed here, who was assaulted a non-commissioned officer with a bayonet some time ago, and who was recently court-martialed at Fort Pulaski, was sentenced to one year's imprisonment at Fort Pulaski.

The Camargo neighborhood has the reputation of containing the prettiest, cleverest and smartest girls in the county. Half-a-dozen town rollers who have been Good Templarizing out that way, have left their hearts in the keeping of the glorious country girls. We have visions of weddings and cake "when the spring time comes, gentle Annie." Good luck to the winter's courtship, say we.

A speaker at a recent meeting of the Pittsburg Woman Suffrage Association remarked that "man is only an imperfectly developed woman." At this an old lady, who sat in a corner, sprang to her feet, and in an excited manner said she "hoped to gracious he wouldn't be developed any more than she, for there were too many women in the world now."

For the memory of the late John Ridd, of Illinois, we entertain the liveliest contempt. Mr. Ridd recently dispatched himself with a firearm for the following reasons, set forth in a letter that he left behind: "Two years ago I discovered that I was worthless. My great failings are insincerity of character and ugly selfishness. Any one who watched me a little while would discover my unchangeable nature." Now, it is not that Mr. Ridd was worthless that we hold his memory in reprobation; nor that he was insincere, nor sly, nor ugly. It is because possessing these qualities he was fool enough to think they disqualified him for the duties of life, or stood in the way of his being an ornament to society and an honor to his country. That's what makes us despise him.

A new and large supply of Ladies', Misses' and Children's custom-made Shoes, of every style, variety and finish, at Rose & Bro's, Masonic Temple.

A short time ago the Cynthia Democrat fiercely denounced us as traitors to the Democratic party because we were in favor of recognizing that the war had forever settled several questions that had hitherto been more vexatious than profitable. Now, it thinks the Democratic party is "played out," and goes its hog and three pigs for the Gratz Brown movement. Change appears to be written upon the face of the Democrat as well as the frontispiece of nature.

The Maysville Eagle, the other day, told a harrowing tale of the killing of a partridge that had wandered from its native fields to take a Sunday morning stroll in the streets of Maysville. The Eagle designated the lesser bird "Mr. Pat Ridge, a well-known father dealer." The young gentleman who belongs to the Young Men's Christian Association, parts his hair in the middle, and collates "State News" for the Louisville Lodger, swallows the ingenious story of our Maysville contemporary as the record of a veritable murder, and reproduces it with the following introductory observations: "Savely the following outrage merits prompt investigation, and the perpetrators of the atrocious murder should meet with no mercy. The narrative reads like a story from Central Africa." That gudgeon bit hard.

Rose & Bro., Masonic Temple, say what they mean and do what they say. They sell better and cheaper goods than any house in Eastern Kentucky.

We are indebted to our young friend, Bruce Young for what may be very appropriately termed a "bunch" of corn. The "bunch" consists of fifteen separate and distinct ears growing around one central ear, all on the same stem. It is quite a curious specimen of the handiwork of Ceres.

Of the Protestant Episcopal Church, makes his annual visitation to the church at this place to-day. Services will be held in the Courthouse this evening at 7 o'clock, and to-morrow at 10 o'clock A. M., and at 7 o'clock P. M. This distinguished divine is one of the leading pulpits of the country, and occupies an exalted position in the councils and affections of his church. We hope all of our citizens will embrace this opportunity of hearing the eminent Bishop Cummins.

Positive and Final.
The drawing of the Louisville Library Scheme will positively take place in public on December 16th. We will sell tickets until December 1st, at which time we are compelled to close accounts with the main office. Payments of prizes will commence Tuesday, December 19. We assure every one that this arrangement is final and positive. We have received another consignment of tickets, having disposed of all the first consignment. The prices are $10 for whole ticket, $5 for half ticket, and $2.50 for quarter ticket. As the time is limited, all our friends desiring to invest in this scheme had better call upon us without delay. The distribution will be fairly and impartially conducted, under the personal supervision of the Trustees.

The Sheriff's—Response of Mr. Greene.
EDITOR SENTINEL:—In response to "Many Voters" in your issue of last week, I beg leave to say: Open wide the door and in I come.

I have been so strongly solicited by my personal friends to become a candidate for the nomination for Sheriff, that I do not feel free to decline, and I wish today to the voters of Montgomery county, that the intimacy existing between most of them and myself has been such that I need no further introduction, and will simply promise that that promptness and faithfulness which I feel has characterized my trading efforts shall be my aim in performing the duties of Sheriff, if elected.

The firm of Greene & Ashbrook will continue as ever, and I shall take pleasure in aiding the payment of debts, taxes, &c., by disposing of any surplus stock that my friends may have.

My deputy shall be a young man of fine qualifications—active, reliable, prompt and a Democrat from birth, and I may add candidate for matrimony. Again, I feel that Aaron's land deserves and should have a hand in the public crib, and her people deem me a fit recipient. I beg the votes of the men, and I claim the votes of the women, because my deputy is a Woman's Rights man, and will be with after the August election.

W. N. GREENE.

Railroad Prospects and Gossip.

During a brief visit to Lexington last Monday, we took occasion to call upon Gen. Breckinridge to learn something about the condition and prospects of the railroad. The General informed us that the portion of the road lying between Lexington and Mt. Sterling is let to responsible contractors, who have obligated themselves to have it completed to this point by a day not later than the 1st of July next. Twenty-six miles of the work—from Lexington to Stoner—are let to Messrs. Bibb & Co., of Virginia, and the eight miles from Stoner to Mt. Sterling, to a Mr. Kerr. Mr. Bibb had employed six hundred negroes, at Lexington, to go to work last Monday morning, at $1.50 per day. They were to have met him out at the work Sunday morning, when he was to have had a talk with them, telling them what he should require of them and what he would do for them. Saturday evening and night the negroes organized themselves into companies of 100 men each, elected captains for each company, and Sunday morning, when Mr. Bibb and they met as per agreement, the captains informed him that they had concluded to demand $2 "a day" for their labor. Mr. Bibb then told them that he had no use for them.

On Monday morning he left for New York to employ Irish and Swedes for the work. Mr. Kerr has gone to West Virginia for his hands and implements, and will come through the mountains to this place with them, reaching here at an early day. There is now no longer any doubt about the road being built. Work will be commenced as soon as Mr. Kerr can come from Guyanote, W. Va. with his hands and with his forces. The contractors will not depend upon the loafing, trifling, worthless negro population of our cities and towns, therein exhibiting commendable wisdom.

We heard recently that Mr. Thos. Arnold, of Cincinnati, who has been a cripple for some time came up to Cynthia and procured from Dr. Thos. Smith several bottles of Smith's Agricultural Liniment, saying at the time that he had tried everything but found nothing that did him any good except this liniment, and he determined to stop off and get some. We have been of the opinion for some time, from what we have seen in our own county, that Dr. Smith has the best liniment in use. We have noticed the calls at Breen's drug store, and are satisfied that it is fast becoming the standard liniment for man and beast.

The Carlisle Mercury has at length reached the bitter conclusion that the Big Sandy railroad will be built.

What about that Pittsford railroad in Ohio? Things have been progressing—While Cincinnati has been poking about among local and political affairs—running to Congress and Columbus and Frankfort for help—the practical people of Central Kentucky, led by John C. Breckinridge, have been taking care of themselves. They have no need of Cincinnati. And that is all right—Courier-Journal.

This is what may be very properly termed a substituted impudence. During the Southern Railroad war Cincinnati was the staunch friend and ally of Central Kentucky, while Louisville was her implacable foe. And by her bitter hostility to the E. L. & B. S. enterprise Louisville made war upon the best interests of Eastern Kentucky. Our people will not forget her for this. The purchase of the Louisville, Lexington and Cincinnati Shortline by the Chesapeake and Ohio Company was strategy which secures entrance into the capital city of the enemy. So far from abandoning our faithful ally, Cincinnati, and her Southern road, we intend to stand by and with them to the end. Louisville will yet find that her selfishness has cost her dear.

MISSIONARY CONVENTION.—The next Quarterly Meeting of the Disciples of District number 3, will be held in Mt. Sterling, Nov. 21st, at 2 P. M. in the Christian Church. A large attendance is looked for, especially from the churches in Montgomery county. The meeting will begin promptly at the hour and last two or three days. Preaching each night by ministers from a distance.

COURTING IN NEBRASKA.

The Effect of a Scarcity of Women.

A correspondent writes the following from Nebraska to a Syracuse paper.

A party of us was duck hunting the other day on the Missouri bottoms. Night overtook us before we were aware of it, and we were obliged to seek lodging at the first dwelling we could find. It was a small one-story structure of three rooms, and occupied by a family of six—father, mother, daughter, and three sons. The sons were all unmarried, and from the calls that were made afterwards we judge the daughter was unmarried also. We hadn't been in the house five minutes when some kind of a vehicle drove up, and two young men were ushered into the parlor. Straightway the mother and daughter held a whispered consultation, which closed with an invitation to the sitting room for supper. It was evident the young men callers had been to tea, as they staid in the parlor with "sweet sixteen."

Scarcely had we taken our seats at the table when a howl from the door out doors announced another caller. He seemed to avoid the front door, and knocked at that where our party was sitting down to supper. The mother rose to answer the summons, when we were surprised by the daughter opening the parlor door and rushing forward with, "Don't get up, mother! It's one of my fellows! Come in, Jim; how do you do?"

And Jim entered in response to the cheery salutation. He made himself as comfortable as possible till we had finished supper, when another whispered consultation proved that the "parlor is as full as it ort to be," whispered by miss, in response to some motherly suggestion. The old gentleman solved the question by inviting us into the kitchen to smoke. It was evident that Jim didn't smoke, for he remained in the sitting-room, and one in the kitchen. What should be done? The courting business was getting hot. There was another talk between mother and daughter. It was evident their devices had been exhausted. The old gentleman was called into the corner. He settled the question by a whisper, "I'll be damned if I'll move again until the sitting-room is full!"

Into the sitting room went number four and we smoked. It was full ten minutes before the next disturbance came and they entered the kitchen with the air of old acquaintances. We looked anxiously at the host. Taking his pipe from his mouth, a single sentence relieved us: "Them's the widowers! Stick!"

And we "stuck" and smoked on. For the next half an hour the girl must have been kept busy. The widowers had certainly a third of her time. It was 9 o'clock. We wished to go to bed, and the only bed we had discovered was in the parlor. The old gentleman divined our wishes, and said:

"Gentlemen! But this is one of the roughest courting, nights. These two fellows in the parlor never leave after midnight, and the widowers all stay all night. And that ain't the worst of it. Dan'll be here at ten o'clock; I and the boys all sleep in the hay-stack Friday nights. Yer welcome to that!"

The parlor, sitting room and kitchen full, we retreated to the hay-stack. In response to a question on the point, the old gentleman said that "Friday nights it's party bad, but Sunday it's worse. Last Sunday night there were ten on 'em, and the girl is getting more and more particular. The more she gets the more she wants!"

On the hay-stack, with a stiff breeze driving away the mosquitoes, we heard Dan drive up. One of the remarks of the old man before we fell asleep was, "Yes gentlemen, courting is hot in Nebraska!" And we believed him.

We learn from the Glasgow Times how an indignant wife offered to swap her bigamous husband for a sewing machine. The Times says: "Last Saturday a man named T. T. Alexander came from Adair county and took up his abode in this county. He represented himself as an unmarried man, and wooed, won, and married a lady living near Temple Hill, in this county. A short time after his wedding he went to Adair county, where he had left his wife No. 1 and took a sewing machine that he had given her and brought it to wife No. 2. Wife No. 1 followed him back to this county, and learned that he had taken to himself another wife. She went to his residence, and told wife No. 2 if she would give up the sewing machine she might keep Alexander. This the barren county wife refused to do, and so the other came to town and had the much-married man arrested. He was arraigned before Judge Jones for an examination. On Saturday evening, when the above facts were elicited, and he was sent to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

Miss Lillie Peckham, well known as a public lecturer throughout the country, died in Milwaukee, Wis., on the 10th inst., after a short illness. She had determined to enter the ministry, and intended to apply this fall for admission to the Cambridge Divinity School.

The following is the touching inscription on the tombstone of "Mary Jane, aged 11 years, 8 months," in the Cape May Cemetery:

"She was not more than a fair girl, but hearts with grief for her are swollen; And empty stands her little chair— She died of grief, watermelon!"

Carlotta, widow of Maximilian, the Austrian usurper of Mexico, has lost the beauty for which she was once so famous, and her appearance is said to be repulsive. Her physician says that she cannot live long.

MEDICAL.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the history of medicine has anything so speedily and so deeply penetrated the confidence of mankind as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation as it has become better known. Its remarkable character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While applied to the system in the most judicious manner, it is at the same time the most effective remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a protection against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and used as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, and should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although Croup, Consumption is thought incurable, and great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else can reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by the use of this valuable remedy. Bronchitis is generally cured by it, and frequent doses, so generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the names of those who have made more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Remittent Fever, Penum, Typhoid Fever, or Bilious Fever, &c., &c. It is a powerful and reliable remedy, and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic influences.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not. Contain neither Arsenic, Quinine, or Bismuth. Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it is as wholesome as any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the tropics, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the good effects of this medicine in obscure cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed. Unusually long and severe cases, or travelling through malarious localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Ague Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver to healthy action, and driving out the poison. For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many of its remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed. Frequent doses of AYER'S AGUE CURE, will cure all malarious, marsh, or miasmatic diseases.

PRICE, $1.00 PER BOTTLE.
